A CRISIS IMPENDING IN THE SERBIAN GOVERNMENT.

KRAGUEJEVATZ, Sept. 18.—The committee has not yet been able to present the Skouptschina with an address in reply to Prince Milan's speech. The discussion still continues. The Government has as yet failed to secure a majority for peace. There are rumors of a Ministerial crisis. The situation is grave and uncertain.

THE INSURRECTIONISTS GAINING GROUND IN EASTERN HERZEGOVINA.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Times this morning has a special telegram from Cattaro, stating in effect that the insurrection is not declining in Eastern Herzegovina. There have been some sharp encounters near Matscho and Flevic, in which the Turks were defeated.

THE CONSULAR ATTEMPTS AT MEDIATION—THE BOSNIANS IN A LESS CONCILIATORY MOOD THAN THE HERZEGOVINIANS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 18.—Latest advices state that the Consuls of Austria, Germany, and Italy despair of bringing about negotiations between the Bosnian insurgents and Server Pasha, the Turkish Commissioner. The English, French, and Russian Consuls, whose task lies in Herzegovina, are still hopeful because the insurgents there show a conciliatory disposition. They are, however, unable to give a definite report of the result of their mission until they have interviewed the insurgents in the mountains near Gatchka.

THE STATE OF THE HARVESTED CROPS—ELEVEN MILLION QUARTERS OF WHEAT REQUIRED FROM ABROAD.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Times, in its financial article this morning, has the following: The harvest is nearly at an end. The reports as to the quality of the new wheat are generally good. The markets in Mincing lane continue quiet. Sugar is depressed, and prices favor the buyer.

James Caird, whom the Times considers high authority, writes that journal as follows: "The publication of the returns of acreage exhibits the greatest breadth of wheat we have had since the returns have been taken, and half a million acres less than the average extent previous to 1860, when we had 4,000,000 less people. The decrease in Ireland has been fourteen per cent. from 1874, and in Great Britain the decrease has been nearly eight per cent." He estimates the amount of wheat required from abroad at 11,000,000 quarters.

THE BULLION WITHDRAWN FROM THE BANK OF ENGLAND COMING TO AMERICA.

EMPEROR WILLIAM TO VISIT THE KING OF ITALY IN OCTOBER.

BERLIN, Sept. 18.—The Emperor William will leave Germany, on the 1st of October probably, and certainly by the 3d, to visit the King of Italy. Prince Bismarck will probably attend him, although this is not fully decided. The Emperor will set out from Baden-Baden soon after the birthday of the Empress, Sept. 30, which is always celebrated in that city. The movements of the Emperor have for a long time past been regulated to a great extent by his medical advisers, and the determination to visit Italy has just been made.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

THE TWO COUNTRIES LIKELY TO BE LIBERAL EXHIBITORS AT THE CENTENNIAL.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The public interest in the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia is steadily increasing in France and Germany. A great many manufacturers and merchants are asking for information and applying for space in the Exhibition buildings. A good representation from both countries seems assured. Nearly all the Lyons silk manufacturers, who were exhibitors at the Vienna Exhibition, will repeat their display at Philadelphia.

AN EARTHQUAKE AT SEA.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 18.—Capt. Doe, of the bark St. Lawrence, which arrived here yesterday from Demerara, reports that on the 29th of August, at 8:30 P. M., in latitude 18° 50', longitude 61° 30', the vessel encountered an earthquake. Mr. Zimmerman, the first mate, was on deck at the time, and he describes the sensation as that of the vessel striking heavily against the bottom or on a sunken rock. The weather was moderate and pleasant at the time. Mrs. Doe and Miss Dillingham, a passenger, were in the cabin and they heard the mizzenmast creak and felt the vessel tremble violently. It seemed to them as if the masts were being twisted. The crew in the fore-castle also had the same experience. The shock lasted thirty seconds, but no damage was done. The bark was between St. Thomas and the Island of St. Bartholomew, 140 miles from any land.

MURDER BY TEXAN HERDERS.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 18.—A dispatch from Kearny Junction says a party of about twenty Texan herders came in last night and camped on the Platte at the bridge. During the night their horses got into the corn-field of Mr. Collins and he seized them. This morning they said they would settle for the damage. They came up to town, got drunk, went back and shot Collins five times, killing him almost instantly. The citizens have organized and are in pursuit of the Texans. A later
